

Hi!, and we're Particular Malfuction, you know, the people who bring you the zine of the same name. We fill every issue with wisdom, coolness, and awesome art. We are in the process of creating issue number 2. Issue number 2 will have 500 copies, but this costs money, and while thinking of ways to raise this money (it's not much, $50 or so) we thought of asking for donations (Which we welcome), but I would like to offer something, like advertizement. This way we can bring our zine to every one for free. You get advertisement, we get to print this zine, and we hand them out for free, every one wins.
